1889. April, 15th	45	12mo dy 1st ...		500	Printed	Rs. A. P. 1 0 0	Akshaya Kumār Kābyabinod, 148, Baranasi Ghosh's Street, Calcutta.	In the preface the writer finds fault with the language, manner and matter of the most popular school-books in Bengal, with the Inspectors of Schools for allowing these	8766 books to be still used, and with the Central Text-book Committee, the members of which, he says, are masses of matter with a small quantity of life infused into them. There are pieces in prose also. The writer gives copious notes at the foot of each page in which he speaks very hard of modern Sanskrit scholarship.

April, 5th	12	12mo dy	1st ...	1,000	ditto ...	.....	A. C. Mukharji, Dibi Serampore Road, Calcutta.	The writer thinks that the Brahmins are the descendants of Israel. They invariably use the word Śrīla before writing their names. But the word	8828
Śrīla is the same as I-shraēla . The word Brahmana is simply another form of Abraham, from whom the writer thinks both the Jews and the Brahmins are descended.
Mar., 4th	12	6mo dy	1st ...	500	ditto ..	0 1 0	Nabarsj Barua, Uttara Bhunsi.	Certain sayings of the Dhammapada rendered into Bengali prose.	8829
April, 3rd	4	12mo dy	2nd ...	5,000	ditto ...	.....	C. T. and B. Society, 23, Chowringhee Road, Calcutta	The meaning of the term Jesus-Christ is one who is engaged in saving others. It is a sweet name. Jesus is conquering the whole world and spreading His religion at the expense of the false religions of the world.	8830
" 3rd	8	12mo dy	3rd ...	5,000	ditto ...	.....	ditto	The only means for salvation is faith in Christ. Those who think that merit can save them are wrong.	8831

In an article on the Congress the writer characterises the movement as mere childishness. It aims at impossibilities. It aims at cajoling Englishmen for the purpose of obtaining political privileges for natives. But the English are wide awake. The writer sounds a note of alarm warning orthodox Hindus against the attempt of a section of the Congressists to encourage widow marriage, to discourage early marriage, and to remove the social obstacles in the way of undertaking journeys to England.	2198

CALCUTTA;

The 6th December 1889.

HARAPRASAD SHASTRI,

Offg. Librarian of the Bengal Library and Keeper of the Catalogue of Books under Section XVIII, Act XXV of 1867.

APPENDIX TO
The Calcutta Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19, 1890.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,—MARINE.

NOTIFICATION No. 69 Marine.

The 18th March 1890.—In the exercise of the power vested in the Local Government under section 6 of Act X. of 1889 (the Indian Ports Act), and in supersession of Rules I to XV, XVII to XXI, and XXIII to XXXII of the Rules of the Port of Chittagong, sanctioned under notification, dated the 31st October 1884, the Lieutenant-Governor intends to make the following Rules for the Port and its Approaches. The rules will be taken into consideration on the expiry of one month after their first publication in the Gazette, and the Local Government will receive and consider any suggestions or observations that may be made concerning them before the expiry of that period.

J. M. McNEIL, Colonel, R.E.,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Rules under clause (a).

Rule I.—No vessel of the burthen of 100 tons or upwards shall enter the port or move from one place to another within the port between sunset and daybreak without the special permission of the Commissioners: provided that a vessel which has entered the port before sunset may at once proceed to a safe anchorage in any part of the port not higher than Domakhali.

Vessels not to move night.

Rule II.—No vessel of the burthen of 100 tons or upwards shall steam, sail, or be towed up on the flood or down on the ebb within port limits except with the permission of the Commissioners.

Vessels not to move up on the flood or down on the ebb.

Rule III.—River steamers and tug steamers having no vessels in tow are permitted to move up on the flood or down on the ebb at their own risk, and at a speed sufficient to keep the vessels under command; but in no case shall the speed exceed four miles an hour through the water.

River and tug steamers exempted.

Rule IV.—All vessels of the burthen of 200 tons or upwards about to leave the port shall hoist the Blue-Peter at the fore at least twenty-four hours before leaving the moorings, and shall keep it hoisted until the pilot takes charge of the vessel to take her to sea.

Signal of departure to be hoisted.

Rule V.—Vessels may at all times, with the previous sanction of the Commissioners, drop up or down the port with their anchors on the ground.

Vessels dropping up or down.

Rules under clause (b).

Rule VI.—On the arrival of any ship in port, she shall be put into such moorings or take up such berth as may be appointed by the Commissioners, and she shall not be removed from such moorings or berth (except in case of emergency) without the sanction of the said Commissioners.

Occupation of berths on moorings.

Anchoring of small vessels.

Rule VII.—Every vessel of a draught of 12 feet and under shall anchor on the shoal side of the river, or off town, from below the pier on the south side of the river, and from Goshaldanga to Domakhali on the eastern side of the river, and below Domakhali to Guptakhali on the northern side of the river, and keep in a line so as not to obstruct the navigation of the river in any way.

Anchoring of large vessels.

Rule VIII.—No vessel dropping up or down the river shall anchor in the fairway unless she be of heavy draught or of great length. Any vessel on the move or waiting for the tide shall sheer out of the channel and anchor as far out of the fairway as she can do without risk. No vessel shall anchor on the bars or in the fairway off the bars.

Small vessels not to anchor in the fairway.

Rule IX.—Vessels of less than 12 feet draught proceeding up or down the river are prohibited from anchoring in the fairway.

Rules under clause (c).

Vessels in port to rig in booms and, if required, to take in all boats.

Rule X.—Every vessel within the port shall rig in her jib and driver booms, and, if required to do so, swing inboard all boats hanging at the davits as soon as she has moored, and shall so retain them, unless otherwise authorized by the Commissioners. All other things projecting from a vessel's side shall also be removed if the Commissioners so require.

Rule for regulating the striking of yards and masts.

Rule XI.—From the 1st day of May until the 30th day of June and from the 1st day of October to the 15th day of November, all vessels in the port shall send down their top-gallant yards, and have mast ropes rove ready to send down their top-gallant masts at short notice on receiving instructions from the Commissioners or when the storm signals are hoisted. Vessels about to leave the port may send their top-gallant yards aloft, and rig out their jibbooms twenty-four hours before leaving moorings, provided the storm signals are not hoisted.

Rules under clause (d).

Vessels to have an anchor at the bow.

Rule XII.—Vessels lying in the stream or at the moorings shall at all times have at least one anchor at the bow, with a cable bent and ranged ready to let go. Vessels with no spare hawse pipe for cables shall have a good hawser bent ready for letting go.

Vessels to remove projections from sides.

Rule XIII.—Every ship or vessel within the port shall remove any anchor or spar, or other object projecting from her side, when ordered to do so.

Rule under clause (e).

Discharge of ballast.

Rule XIV.—No ballast shall be discharged from any ship, or landed from boats, or taken from the shore or river banks within the port and its approaches without the previous sanction of the Port Commissioners, who may appoint ballast guards to supervise the work, and no vessel shall discharge sand ballast, earth or other debris into boats without a proper shoot, of a pattern to be approved by the Port Commissioners.

Rules under clause (g).

Vessels to be moored and keep a clear hawse.

Rule XV.—Every vessel lying within the limits of the port shall be moored, and shall keep a clear hawse.

Vessels not to obstruct the passage of boats on shore.

Rule XVI.—Unless moored head and stern, no vessel within the port or in the navigable channel leading thereto shall lie close to the shore, or shall in any way obstruct the passage of boats inshore.

Vessels moored to use the bower chain for stern moorings.

Rule XVII.—Every vessel in moorings shall use her bower chain for her stern moorings, or such other chain that may be approved by the Port Commissioners, who, in case of approaching bad weather, may have the same changed or doubled at their discretion.

Rule under clause (h).

Vessels not to be moored and hawsers and warps not to be left out at night.

Rule XVIII.—Except in case of emergency, no vessel shall be moored, or unmoored, and no hawsers and warps shall be left out between sunset and daybreak, without the previous sanction of the Port Commissioners.

Rules under clause (i).

Moorings not to be occupied without Port Commissioners' permission.

Rule XIX.—No vessel shall use any of the moorings, whether fixed or swinging, without the permission of the Port Commissioners.

Application for moorings, &c., how to be made.

Rule XX.—All applications to be hauled into, or cast off from, the moorings, or for any other assistance, shall be made either personally or by letter to the Port Commissioners. Applications will, as far as possible, be complied with in order according to the date of their receipt.

Rule XXI.—No vessel of a burden exceeding 100 tons shall lie at single anchor in the port unless a pilot or assistant harbour master is on board. This rule does not apply to vessels dropping up or down.

Lying at single anchor prohibited.

Rule XXII.—Masters of vessels fouling buoys, tide gauges, or injuring any other property of the port, shall report the same to the Port Commissioners in writing without delay, stating the time and manner of the occurrence.

Masters to report injury to plant of the port.

Rules under clause (k).

Rule XXIII.—No sampan, cargo-boat, or other vessel shall go alongside steam-vessels when under weigh.

Boats, &c., not to go alongside steam-vessels under weigh.

Rule XXIV.—No passenger boat shall ply for hire within the limits of the Port unless licensed and registered by the Port Commissioners and under the direction of a person licensed by the Commissioners.

Passenger boats not to ply for hire within the limits of the port unless duly licensed and registered.

Rule XXV.—Every application for the licensing and registration of a passenger boat must be made in writing to the Port Commissioners, and contain particulars of the owner's name and residence, a description of the boat, and the number of passengers which it is intended to carry.

Applications for the licensing and registration of passenger boats to be made in writing to the Commissioners.

Rule XXVI.—Every person requiring a license to have charge of a passenger boat shall apply for the same to the Commissioners in writing.

Persons requiring licenses to have charge of passenger boats to apply to the Commissioners.

Rule XXVII.—Every license shall continue in force for one year from the date on which such license is issued, unless it is revoked under the provisions of these rules.

Licenses to continue in force for one year unless revoked.

Rule XXVIII.—No license shall be granted to any passenger boat unless the Port Commissioners are satisfied that it is in good order and suited for the accommodation of passengers. The number of persons to be kept in charge of the boat, and of the passengers which may be carried therein at one time, shall be stated in the license.

No licenses to be granted to passenger boats unless they are in good condition and suited for the accommodation of passengers.

Rule XXIX.—The number of every licensed and registered boat shall be painted by the Port Commissioners on the bow thereof in letters of not less than four inches in length.

The number of every licensed and registered boat to be painted by the Commissioners on its bow.

Rule XXX.—Fees not exceeding the sums mentioned in the following schedule shall be payable for the issue, renewal, &c., of the licenses granted under these rules :—

Fees to be paid for the issue, renewal, &c., of licenses.

Commissioners on receiving applications shall cause the cargo-boats to be surveyed.

Fees to be charged for the issue of licenses to cargo-boats.

Rule XXXVII.—When any property belonging to passengers or others is left in a passenger boat unclaimed, the property so left shall be at once sent by the person in charge to the nearest police-station.

Rule XXXVIII.—Any person in charge of a licensed passenger boat plying for hire in the port, who shall, without good reason, refuse to carry a passenger in such vessel, shall, for every such refusal, be liable to the penalty prescribed by law for breach of these rules, and shall in addition be liable to have his own license, and that of the vessel of which he is in charge, revoked.

Rule XXXIX.—Every licensed passenger boat, when plying, shall have its license on board, and the license shall be produced when required.

Rule XL.—An owner of a passenger boat who may withdraw it from plying, except for the purpose of repairs or other sufficient cause without giving 48 hours' notice to the Port Commissioners, shall, in addition to the penalty prescribed by Act X of 1889 for a breach of these rules, be liable to have the license revoked.

Rule XLI.—Every person registered under these rules shall be provided with a metal license ticket, upon which shall be legibly painted the number of his license, and every such person, when in charge of a licensed vessel, shall wear his ticket exposed to view on the arm or hang round the neck. No person without such ticket shall be in charge of any passenger boat.

Rule XLII.—Whenever the number on any license ticket shall become obliterated or defaced, so that the same shall not be distinctly legible, and also when any license ticket shall have been lost or mislaid, an application shall be made to the Port Commissioners for a renewal thereof, and the Port Commissioners shall supply a new license ticket.

Rule XLIII.—On the expiration or other determination of any license, the ticket shall be returned to the Port Commissioners.

Rule XLIV.—No license ticket shall be lent or transferred to any other person, and no such ticket shall be used by any unlicensed person.

Rule XLV.—No person in charge of any registered passenger boat plying within the limits of the port shall use, or wear, or have any ticket resembling, or intended to resemble, the metal ticket granted under the authority of these rules.

Rule XLVI.—The following shall be the scale of charges for hire of licensed boats (sampans) plying between mail steamers lying at their moorings and the jetty in the port:—

For each passenger over 12 years from or to steamers during day, with baggage not exceeding 10 seers	...	1 anna.
For each passenger under 12 years during day with baggage as above	...	½ anna.
Luggage in excess of 10 seers	...	6 pias per maund or fraction of a maund.

Between 7 P.M. and 5 A.M. double the above fares.

Rule XLVII.—No boat not duly licensed and registered shall be used for the conveyance of goods within the limits of the port without a special permit from the Port Commissioners, and the owner or the person in charge of any boat so used shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Rule XLVIII.—Each application for the licensing and registration of a cargo-boat shall be made to the Port Commissioners in writing, and shall contain particulars of the owner's name and residence, and the tonnage of the boat.

Rule XLIX.—The applications will be made to the Port Commissioners, who shall cause the boats to be surveyed and satisfy themselves that they are safe.

Rule L.—The license will then be issued, and will be current for one year from the date of registration. A fee at the following rates will be charged on the issue of each license, and the same fee on its renewal every year:—

APPENDIX TO
The Calcutta Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 2, 1890.

[Third Publication.]

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,—MARINE.

NOTIFICATION No. 69 Marine.

The 18th March 1890.—In the exercise of the power vested in the Local Government under section 6 of Act X of 1889 (the Indian Ports Act), and in supersession of Rules I to XV, XVII to XXI, and XXIII to XXXII of the Rules of the Port of Chittagong, sanctioned under notification, dated the 31st October 1884, the Lieutenant-Governor intends to make the following Rules for the Port and its Approaches. The rules will be taken into consideration on the expiry of one month after their first publication in the Gazette, and the Local Government will receive and consider any suggestions or observations that may be made concerning them before the expiry of that period.

J. M. McNEILE, Colonel, R.E.,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Rules under clause (a).

Rule I.—No vessel of the burthen of 100 tons or upwards shall enter the port or move from one place to another within the port between sunset and daybreak without the special permission of the Commissioners: provided that a vessel which has entered the port before sunset may at once proceed to a safe anchorage in any part of the port not higher than Domakhali.

Vessels not to move at night.

Rule II.—No vessel of the burthen of 100 tons or upwards shall steam, sail, or be towed up on the flood or down on the ebb within port limits except with the permission of the Commissioners.

Vessels not to move up on the flood or down on the ebb.

Rule III.—River steamers and tug steamers having no vessels in tow are permitted to move up on the flood or down on the ebb at their own risk, and at a speed sufficient to keep the vessels under command; but in no case shall the speed exceed four miles an hour through the water.

River and tug steamers exempted.

Rule IV.—All vessels of the burthen of 200 tons or upwards about to leave the port shall hoist the Blue-Peter at the fore at least twenty-four hours before leaving the moorings, and shall keep it hoisted until the pilot takes charge of the vessel to take her to sea.

Signal of departure to be hoisted.

Rule V.—Vessels may at all times, with the previous sanction of the Commissioners, drop up or down the port with their anchors on the ground.

Vessels dropping up or down.

Rules under clause (b).

Rule VI.—On the arrival of any ship in port, she shall be put into such moorings or take up such berth as may be appointed by the Commissioners, and she shall not be removed from such moorings or berth (except in case of emergency) without the sanction of the said Commissioners.

Occupation of berths on moorings.

Anchoring of small vessels.

Rule VII.—Every vessel of a draught of 12 feet and under shall anchor on the shoal side of the river, or off town, from below the pier on the south side of the river, and from Goshaldanga to Domakhali on the eastern side of the river, and below Domakhali to Guptakhali on the northern side of the river, and keep in a line so as not to obstruct the navigation of the river in any way.

Anchoring of large vessels.

Rule VIII.—No vessel dropping up or down the river shall anchor in the fairway unless she be of heavy draught or of great length. Any vessel on the move or waiting for the tide shall sheer out of the channel and anchor as far out of the fairway as she can do without risk. No vessel shall anchor on the bars or in the fairway off the bars.

Small vessels not to anchor in the fairway.

Rule IX.—Vessels of less than 12 feet draught proceeding up or down the river are prohibited from anchoring in the fairway.

Rules under clause (c).

Vessels in port to rig in booms and, if required, to take in all boats.

Rule X.—Every vessel within the port shall rig in her jib and driver booms, and, if required to do so, swing inboard all boats hanging at the davits as soon as she has moored, and shall so retain them, unless otherwise authorized by the Commissioners. All other things projecting from a vessel's side shall also be removed if the Commissioners so require.

Rule for regulating the striking of yards and masts.

Rule XI.—From the 1st day of May until the 30th day of June and from the 1st day of October to the 15th day of November, all vessels in the port shall send down their top-gallant yards, and have mast ropes rove ready to send down their top-gallant masts at short notice on receiving instructions from the Commissioners or when the storm signals are hoisted. Vessels about to leave the port may send their top-gallant yards aloft, and rig out their jibbooms twenty-four hours before leaving moorings, provided the storm signals are not hoisted.

Rules under clause (d).

Vessels to have an anchor at the bow.

Rule XII.—Vessels lying in the stream or at the moorings shall at all times have at least one anchor at the bow, with a cable bent and ranged ready to let go. Vessels with no spare hawse pipe for cables shall have a good hawser bent ready for letting go.

Vessels to remove projections from sides.

Rule XIII.—Every ship or vessel within the port shall remove any anchor or spar, or other object projecting from her side, when ordered to do so.

Rule under clause (e).

Discharge of ballast.

Rule XIV.—No ballast shall be discharged from any ship, or landed from boats, or taken from the shore or river banks within the port and its approaches without the previous sanction of the Port Commissioners, who may appoint ballast guards to supervise the work, and no vessel shall discharge sand ballast, earth or other debris into boats without a proper shoot, of a pattern to be approved by the Port Commissioners.

Rules under clause (g).

Vessels to be moored and keep a clear hawse.

Rule XV.—Every vessel lying within the limits of the port shall be moored, and shall keep a clear hawse.

Vessels not to obstruct the passage of boats on shore.

Rule XVI.—Unless moored head and stern, no vessel within the port or in the navigable channel leading thereto shall lie close to the shore, or shall in any way obstruct the passage of boats inshore.

Vessels moored to use the bower chain for stern moorings.

Rule XVII.—Every vessel in moorings shall use her bower chain for her stern moorings, or such other chain that may be approved by the Port Commissioners, who, in case of approaching bad weather, may have the same changed or doubled at their discretion.

Rule under clause (h).

Vessels not to be moored and hawsers and warps not to be left out at night.

Rule XVIII.—Except in case of emergency, no vessel shall be moored, or unmoored, and no hawsers and warps shall be left out between sunset and daybreak, without the previous sanction of the Port Commissioners.

Rules under clause (i).

Moorings not to be occupied without Port Commissioners' permission.

Rule XIX.—No vessel shall use any of the moorings, whether fixed or swinging, without the permission of the Port Commissioners.

Application for moorings, &c., how to be made.

Rule XX.—All applications to be hauled into, or cast off from, the moorings, or for any other assistance, shall be made either personally or by letter to the Port Commissioners. Applications will, as far as possible, be complied with in order according to the date of their receipt.

Rule XXI.—No vessel of a burden exceeding 100 tons shall lie at single anchor in the port unless a pilot or assistant harbour master is on board. This rule does not apply to vessels dropping up or down.

Lying at single anchor prohibited.

Rule XXII.—Masters of vessels fouling buoys, tide gauges, or injuring any other property of the port, shall report the same to the Port Commissioners in writing without delay, stating the time and manner of the occurrence.

Masters to report injury to plant of the port.

Rules under clause (k).

Rule XXIII.—No sampan, cargo-boat, or other vessel shall go alongside steam-vessels when under weigh.

Boats, &c., not to go alongside steam-vessels under weigh.

Rule XXIV.—No passenger boat shall ply for hire within the limits of the Port unless licensed and registered by the Port Commissioners and under the direction of a person licensed by the Commissioners.

Passenger boats not to ply for hire within the limits of the port unless duly licensed and registered.

Rule XXV.—Every application for the licensing and registration of a passenger boat must be made in writing to the Port Commissioners, and contain particulars of the owner's name and residence, a description of the boat, and the number of passengers which it is intended to carry.

Applications for the licensing and registration of passenger boats to be made in writing to the Commissioners.

Rule XXVI.—Every person requiring a license to have charge of a passenger boat shall apply for the same to the Commissioners in writing.

Persons requiring licenses to have charge of passenger boats to apply to the Commissioners.

Rule XXVII.—Every license shall continue in force for one year from the date on which such license is issued, unless it is revoked under the provisions of these rules.

Licenses to continue in force for one year unless revoked.

Rule XXVIII.—No license shall be granted to any passenger boat unless the Port Commissioners are satisfied that it is in good order and suited for the accommodation of passengers. The number of persons to be kept in charge of the boat, and of the passengers which may be carried therein at one time, shall be stated in the license.

No licenses to be granted to passenger boat unless they are in good condition and suited for the accommodation of passengers.

Rule XXIX.—The number of every licensed and registered boat shall be painted by the Port Commissioners on the bow thereof in letters of not less than four inches in length.
